

DISPOSITIONED

Meaning: DISPOSITIONED (adjective): having a particular inclination or tendency towards a certain attitude or approach.

1. The artist had a uniquely dispositioned approach to color, creating a vibrant atmosphere in his work.
2. After careful consideration, she was dispositioned to accept the job offer that aligned with her career goals.
3. His naturally dispositioned demeanor made him a favorite among colleagues and clients alike.
4. They were dispositioned to believe that change was necessary for growth and development.
5. The team was dispositioned towards collaboration, which led to innovative solutions for their projects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispositioned>