

DISPOSITIVELY

Meaning: Dispositively refers to the manner of making a definitive or conclusive decision, particularly in legal contexts.

1. The contract was drafted dispositively to ensure clarity in the obligations of each party.
2. In legal contexts, the term 'dispositively' refers to making a definitive ruling on a matter.
3. The judge's decision was rendered dispositively, leaving no room for further dispute.
4. She explained the dispositively structured framework that guided their research findings.
5. His argument was presented dispositively, compelling the jury to reach a unanimous verdict.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispositively>