

DISPOSSESSOR

Meaning: Dispossessor: a person or entity that removes or takes away possession or ownership of property from another.

1. The dispossessor aimed to reclaim the land that had been unjustly taken from his ancestors.
2. In the legal battle, the dispossessor was determined to prove that the eviction was unlawful.
3. Many believed that the dispossessor had exploited loopholes in the law to gain an unfair advantage.
4. The court ruled in favor of the dispossessor, allowing them to retain ownership of the disputed property.
5. Activists rallied against the dispossessor, arguing that their actions were detrimental to the local community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispossessor>