

DISPOST

Meaning: Dispost: to eliminate or remove something considered outdated or unnecessary.

1. The committee decided to dispost the outdated policies in favor of more modern approaches.
2. After much discussion, they concluded it was best to dispost the old furniture rather than keep it.
3. To ensure cleanliness, the party organizers made arrangements to dispost the waste efficiently.
4. She learned how to dispost of her unwanted items through a local charity.
5. The instructions clearly outlined how to dispost of hazardous materials safely.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispost>