

DISPRAISER

Meaning: Dispraiser: a person who expresses disapproval or criticism, often in a harsh or skeptical manner.

1. The dispraiser's harsh critique left the artist feeling disheartened.
2. In a room full of admirers, the lone dispraiser stood out with her unyielding skepticism.
3. Despite being a dispraiser, he often provided valuable insights that sparked meaningful discussions.
4. Her role as a dispraiser was to challenge ideas, pushing the team to think more critically.
5. Many viewed him as a dispraiser, but his intentions were to foster improvement rather than diminish confidence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispraiser>