

DISPROFIT

Meaning: Disprofit refers to a financial loss or negative profit experienced by a company or organization.

1. The company's decision to expand into the new market resulted in significant disprofit for the first quarter.
2. Investors were alarmed by the disprofit reported in the annual financial statement, prompting immediate concerns.
3. Many startups face disprofit in their early stages as they invest heavily in growth and development.
4. To mitigate disprofit, the management team implemented cost-cutting measures and streamlined operations.
5. Despite the initial disprofit, the team remained hopeful that their innovative product would eventually lead to profitability.
6. The company's recent decisions have led to a significant disprofit that has raised concerns among its investors.
7. When the unexpected expenses came to light, it became clear that the project would incur disprofit instead of the anticipated gains.
8. Despite their best efforts to cut costs, the team was unable to avoid disprofit this quarter.
9. The analysis revealed that poor marketing strategies were a major factor contributing to the disprofit reported last year.
10. In an attempt to recover from disprofit, the firm implemented a series of strategic changes to improve its financial outlook.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disprofit>