

DISPROFITABLE

Meaning: Disprofitable: producing a loss or failing to generate profit; financially unviable.

1. The company's recent investments have proven to be disprofitable, leading to significant financial losses.
2. In the current market, many ventures are disprofitable due to rising costs and declining demand.
3. Her decision to invest in the disprofitable startup was met with skepticism from her financial advisors.
4. The disprofitable nature of the project prompted the team to rethink their strategy entirely.
5. To avoid disprofitable outcomes, the management implemented stricter budget controls and market evaluations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disprofitable>