

DISPROPORTION

Meaning: Disproportion refers to an imbalance or unequal distribution of quantities, often resulting in one group or area being favored or affected more than others.

1. The study highlighted a significant disproportionality in wealth distribution across different regions.
2. Many environmentalists argue that there is a disproportional impact of climate change on vulnerable populations.
3. The artist aimed to create a visual representation of the disproportional relationship between nature and urban development.
4. Disproportion in funding often leads to unequal access to educational resources in low-income areas.
5. The team faced challenges due to the disproportional workloads assigned to different members during the project.
6. The study highlighted a disproportional impact of climate change on marginalized communities.
7. There was a clear disproportional representation of women in leadership roles within the company.
8. Her emotions seemed to reflect a disproportional response to the situation at hand.
9. The budget allocation revealed a disproportional amount of funding directed toward urban projects.
10. In the debate, he argued that the media often portrays issues with a disproportional emphasis on sensationalism.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disproportion>