

DISPROPORTIONAL

Meaning: Disproportional: not in proper proportion; uneven or unequal in amount, degree, or distribution.

1. The study revealed a disproportional impact of climate change on coastal communities.
2. Her workload seemed disproportional compared to her peers, leading to feelings of frustration.
3. The budget allocation was disproportional, favoring only a few departments over others.
4. In the debate, he pointed out the disproportional representation of certain demographics in the media.
5. The consequences of the policy were disproportional to its intended benefits, raising concerns among stakeholders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disproportional>