

DISPROPORTIONALITY

Meaning: Disproportionality refers to an unequal or uneven distribution of resources, opportunities, or access among different groups or communities.

1. The study revealed a troubling disproportionality in the allocation of resources among different communities.
2. Addressing the disproportionality in healthcare access is crucial for achieving equity.
3. Critics of the policy pointed out the disproportionality in its impact on minority groups.
4. The report highlighted the disproportionality of crime rates across various socioeconomic backgrounds.
5. Efforts to reduce disproportionality in education must focus on systemic barriers that perpetuate inequality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disproportionality>