

DISPROVIDE

Meaning: Disprovide: to deprive or withhold necessary resources or support from someone or something.

1. The sudden withdrawal of funding would disprovide the community with essential resources.
2. If the organization fails to deliver on its promises, it will disprovide countless individuals with necessary support.
3. The new policy could inadvertently disprovide students with access to critical learning materials.
4. To disprovide the team of training opportunities would hinder their overall performance and growth.
5. The changes in the law may disprovide families of the benefits they have come to rely on.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disperdvide>