

DISPUNGE

Meaning: Dispunge: to remove or erase something, especially from official records or public discourse.

1. The committee decided to dispunge the outdated regulations from the official records.
2. Efforts to dispunge the misinformation from the public discourse were met with resistance.
3. She requested to dispunge the negative remarks from her performance review to ensure a fair assessment.
4. It is crucial to dispunge any errors in the data before publishing the final report.
5. The lawyer worked tirelessly to dispunge his client's criminal record and restore his reputation.
6. The committee decided to dispunge the controversial clause from the final report.
7. After reviewing the evidence, the judge agreed to dispunge the charges against the defendant.
8. In an effort to maintain transparency, the organization chose to dispunge any misleading information from its records.
9. She requested that the old entries be dispunged to reflect her current views more accurately.
10. The school board voted unanimously to dispunge the outdated policies that no longer served the students' needs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispunge>