

DISPUTABLENESS

Meaning: Disputableness refers to the quality of being open to disagreement or challenge, particularly regarding the validity or correctness of an argument or theory.

1. The disputableness of his argument was evident during the heated debate.
2. Her research highlighted the disputableness of commonly accepted theories in the field.
3. Despite the disputableness of the claim, many people still chose to believe it.
4. The scholar acknowledged the disputableness of his findings in the conclusion of his paper.
5. In discussions of ethics, the disputableness of moral standards often leads to intense disagreements.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disputableness>