

DISPUTACITY

Meaning: Disputacity: the quality of being inclined to dispute or argue, often characterized by contentiousness or a tendency to challenge opposing views.

1. The lawyer's argument was filled with a sense of disputacity, challenging every assumption laid out by the opposing counsel.
2. In discussions about climate change, the disputacity of differing opinions often leads to heated debates.
3. Her disputacity became evident as she passionately defended her viewpoint against all criticisms.
4. While some prefer harmony in conversations, others embrace disputacity as a way to stimulate deeper understanding.
5. The committee's disputacity over the proposed budget revealed the underlying tensions among its members.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disputacity>