DISPUTANT

Meaning: Disputant: a person engaged in a disagreement or argument, especially in a formal setting such as a debate or legal proceeding.

1. The disputant presented compelling evidence to support her argument during the debate.
2. In the court, each disputant had the opportunity to share their side of the story.
3. Despite being a spirited disputant, he always maintained respect for his opponents.
4. The mediator worked hard to find common ground between the two disputants.
5. After hours of discussion, the disputants finally reached a mutual agreement.
6. The disputant presented compelling evidence to support their claims during the debate.
7. In the court case, each disputant argued their position fervently, seeking a favorable judgment.
8. Mediators often help to resolve conflicts between disputants who cannot find common ground.
9. The disputant's passionate arguments captivated the audience and led to an engaging discussion.
10. Despite their differences, the disputants remained respectful throughout the negotiation process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disputant