

DISPUTATION

Meaning: Disputation: a formal debate or argument, especially one concerning a particular topic or issue.

1. The scholars engaged in a lengthy disputation over the ethical implications of artificial intelligence.
2. During the disputation, both sides presented compelling arguments that captivated the audience.
3. His reputation as a debater was solidified after he triumphed in a challenging disputation at the university.
4. The disputation between the two philosophers led to a groundbreaking theory that reshaped their field.
5. In the end, the disputation revealed not only the differences in their views but also common ground in their beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disputation>