

DISPUTE

Meaning: A dispute is a disagreement or argument between parties regarding a specific issue or topic.

1. The two neighbors entered into a heated dispute over the property line.
 2. In the meeting, the team members engaged in a friendly dispute about the best approach to the project.
 3. The dispute between the companies lasted for months before they finally reached a settlement.
 4. Despite the ongoing dispute, both parties agreed to continue negotiations in good faith.
 5. Her refusal to compromise only intensified the dispute, making resolution seem more distant.
 6. The two countries engaged in a lengthy dispute over territorial rights.
 7. She tried to mediate the dispute between her friends, hoping to restore their friendship.
 8. The legal team prepared for a tough dispute in court regarding the contract terms.
 9. In the meeting, they discussed the ongoing dispute, seeking a resolution that satisfied both parties.
 10. Disputes over intellectual property can often lead to costly litigation for businesses.
 11. The two neighbors had a longstanding dispute over the property line.
 12. During the meeting, the leaders tried to resolve the dispute diplomatically.
 13. Her constant need to be right often led to disputes with her colleagues.
 14. The dispute between the two companies escalated into a legal battle.
 15. After much negotiation, they finally reached a mutual agreement to end the dispute.
 16. The two countries are in a long-standing dispute over territorial rights.
 17. Despite their differences, the friends managed to resolve the dispute amicably.
 18. The organization stepped in to mediate the dispute between the conflicting parties.
 19. Her passionate argument only intensified the dispute among the panel members.
 20. Resolving the dispute required careful negotiation and compromise from both sides.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispute>