

DISPUTER

Meaning: Disputer: a person who argues or debates over differing opinions or positions.

1. The disputers engaged in a heated debate about the proposed policy changes.
2. As a skilled negotiator, she often found herself in the role of a disputers, challenging assumptions to foster better solutions.
3. The court required both disputers to present their evidence clearly and concisely.
4. In academic circles, a disputers can stimulate critical thinking and enhance the quality of discourse.
5. Their differing interpretations made them natural disputers on the issue of historical accuracy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disputer>