

DISPUTISON

Meaning: DISPUTISON (noun): a disagreement or conflict between parties, often requiring resolution through negotiation or legal means.

1. The legal team was prepared to address the DISPUTISON that had arisen between the two parties.
2. After hours of negotiation, the DISPUTISON was finally resolved to everyone's satisfaction.
3. The community held a meeting to discuss the ongoing DISPUTISON regarding the new development project.
4. Her research highlighted the historical context of the DISPUTISON over land rights in the region.
5. To avoid further escalation, they agreed to seek mediation in the DISPUTISON that was tearing their friendship apart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disputison>