

DISQUIETMENT

Meaning: Disquietment refers to a state of unease or anxiety that causes discomfort or unrest.

1. The sudden disquietment in the room was palpable as everyone awaited the announcement.
2. Her disquietment grew as she realized she had forgotten to prepare for the meeting.
3. Despite his calm demeanor, a sense of disquietment lingered in the back of his mind.
4. The disquietment among the employees was evident after the news of the layoffs broke.
5. She tried to mask her disquietment, but her fidgeting hands betrayed her anxiety.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disquietment>