

DISREMEMBER

Meaning: Disremember: to forget or fail to recall something, often unintentionally.

1. He seemed to disremember the details of their conversation altogether.
2. In her haste, she might disremember important instructions given earlier.
3. It's easy to disremember certain events when they happened so long ago.
4. I wish I could disremember the hurtful things he said in anger.
5. As time passed, she began to disremember the pain of her past.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disremember>