

DISREPUTABLY

Meaning: DISREPUTABLY (adverb): In a manner that is regarded as lacking good reputation or respectability; dishonorably or shamefully.

1. He was known to act disreputably, often ignoring the law for his own gain.
2. The company's disreputably low standards led to widespread criticism from consumers.
3. She disreputably associated with individuals who had questionable backgrounds.
4. His disreputably behavior at the gala shocked even his closest friends.
5. They chose to distance themselves from the disreputably rumored scandal.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disreputably>