DISREVERENCE

Meaning: Disreverence is a lack of respect or regard for others, particularly in social or formal contexts.

1. The disreverence shown towards the elderly at the gathering was shocking to everyone present.
2. Her disreverence for the rules made it difficult for the team to work together effectively.
3. The teacher addressed the student's disreverence by emphasizing the importance of respect in the classroom.
4. He felt a sense of disreverence creep in as he watched the crowd mock the speaker on stage.
5. Disreverence toward cultural traditions can lead to a loss of identity within a community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disreverence