

DISROBE

Meaning: Disrobe: to remove one's clothing.

1. She decided to disrobe before stepping into the warm bath.
2. The artist asked her model to disrobe in order to capture the natural human form.
3. After the performance, the dancers would disrobe backstage, their laughter echoing in the air.
4. In a moment of vulnerability, he chose to disrobe both physically and emotionally.
5. The magician's act involved a surprising twist where he would disrobe to reveal a hidden trick.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disrobe>