

DISSATISFACTORY

Meaning: DISSATISFACTORY: adjective describing something that fails to meet expectations or standards.

1. The performance of the team was deemed unsatisfactory by the management.
2. Despite their efforts, the results were ultimately disappointing and left the stakeholders dissatisfied.
3. She received a dissatisfactory response to her job application, which was disheartening.
4. The review highlighted several dissatisfactory aspects of the product that needed immediate attention.
5. His lack of preparation for the presentation resulted in a dissatisfactory outcome that surprised everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissatisfactory>