

DISSATISFY

Meaning: DISSATISFY (verb): To fail to meet the expectations or needs of someone, resulting in disappointment or discontent.

1. The new policy may dissatisfy many employees who preferred the previous system.
2. Despite their efforts to improve customer service, some clients still felt dissatisfied with the support they received.
3. He was determined not to let the changes in management dissatisfy his team.
4. The lack of variety in the menu might dissatisfy diners looking for more options.
5. Her response to the feedback was intended to address any issues that could dissatisfy the stakeholders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissatisfy>