

DISSEMBLANCE

Meaning: Dissemblance refers to a concealment or distortion of one's true thoughts, feelings, or reality, often creating a deceptive appearance.

1. The painter's work often reflects a dissemblance between reality and imagination.
2. In her speech, there was a noticeable dissemblance between her words and her true feelings.
3. Their dissemblance in opinions led to a heated debate among the group.
4. The protagonist's dissemblance from societal norms made him an intriguing character.
5. Despite their dissemblance in lifestyles, the two friends shared a deep bond.
6. The artist's work conveyed a dissemblance between reality and imagination.
7. In her speech, there was a dissemblance that masked her true intentions.
8. The novel explores themes of dissemblance, highlighting the gaps between appearance and truth.
9. His dissemblance during the interview raised suspicions among the hiring committee.
10. The dissemblance in their friendship became apparent when secrets were revealed.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissemblance>