

DISSEMBLE

Meaning: To dissemble means to conceal one's true feelings, thoughts, or intentions by pretending or misleading others.

1. He tried to dissemble his true feelings during the meeting.
2. She was skilled at dissembling, effortlessly hiding her intentions from others.
3. The politician chose to dissemble rather than admit to the controversy.
4. Even though he attempted to dissemble, his nervous demeanor gave him away.
5. It's often difficult to dissemble when faced with probing questions from the press.
6. He chose to dissemble his true feelings during the meeting to maintain a professional image.
7. Despite her calm demeanor, she often had to dissemble her anxiety in social situations.
8. The politician attempted to dissemble his intentions, but his past actions revealed the truth.
9. In an effort to dissemble her surprise, she quickly changed the subject to something more mundane.
10. It's difficult to dissemble when someone knows you so well; they can see right through your facade.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissemble>