DISSEMBLING

Meaning: Dissembling refers to the act of concealing one's true motives, feelings, or beliefs by presenting a misleading appearance or facade.

1. He was dissembling his true intentions behind a façade of friendliness.
2. Her constant dissembling made it difficult to trust her in any situation.
3. The politician was accused of dissembling during the debate to avoid answering tough questions.
4. Dissembling can often lead to misunderstandings and lost relationships.
5. Despite his dissembling, the truth eventually came to light.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissembling