

DISSETTLE

Meaning: To dissettle means to disturb or disrupt the stability or calmness of someone or something.

1. The sudden news of the company's bankruptcy seemed to dissettle the entire team.
2. Her unexpected arrival at the party did little to dissettle his composure.
3. The loud thunderclap was enough to dissettle the horses, causing them to bolt.
4. Trying to maintain focus, she refused to let any external factors dissettle her concentration.
5. The conflicting opinions in the meeting began to dissettle the usually calm manager.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissettle>