

DISSEVERATION

Meaning: Disseveration: the act of separating or dividing into distinct parts or factions.

1. The disseveration of the two factions led to a prolonged period of conflict within the organization.
2. Her research focused on the disseveration of historical narratives from firsthand accounts.
3. The artist depicted the disseveration of nature and technology in her latest installation.
4. During the discussion, the professor emphasized the necessity of disseveration in understanding complex theories.
5. The disseveration of the once-unified community left many residents feeling isolated and abandoned.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disseveration>