

DISSEVERMENT

Meaning: Disseverment refers to the act of separating or breaking apart, particularly in the context of relationships, factions, or emotional ties.

1. The disseverment of the two factions led to a protracted conflict within the organization.
2. Her emotional disseverment from the past allowed her to embrace a brighter future.
3. The legal battle resulted in the disseverment of the partnership, leaving both parties to start anew.
4. In literature, the theme of disseverment often reflects the struggle between personal identity and societal expectations.
5. The artist's work explores the disseverment of nature and humanity in a rapidly industrializing world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disseverment>