

DISSIDENT

Meaning: DISSIDENT: a person who opposes official policy or authority, especially in a political context.

1. The dissident spoke out against the oppressive regime, risking imprisonment.
2. Many dissidents fled the country in search of freedom and safety.
3. The government labeled her a dissident for her outspoken views on human rights.
4. In a brave move, the dissident organized protests to challenge the status quo.
5. Dissidents often face severe consequences for their beliefs in authoritarian states.
6. The dissident spoke out against the oppressive regime, risking his safety for the sake of freedom.
7. In a surprising move, the government decided to release several political dissidents from prison.
8. The novel explores the life of a dissident who must navigate a world filled with censorship and fear.
9. Many dissidents were forced into exile, unable to voice their opinions in their homeland.
10. The documentary highlighted the struggles of dissidents fighting for democracy in authoritarian countries.
11. The dissident bravely spoke out against the oppressive regime.
12. Many dissidents were forced into exile to escape persecution.
13. The government cracked down on dissidents, labeling them as traitors.
14. Her writings reflected the thoughts and struggles of a dissident in a repressive society.
15. Despite the risks, the dissident organized peaceful protests to advocate for change.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissident>