

DISSIDENTLY

Meaning: DISSIDENTLY: in a manner that expresses disagreement or opposition to established norms or authority.

1. The artist expressed her thoughts dissidently, challenging the conventional norms of society.
2. In the meeting, he voiced his opinions dissidently, sparking a debate among his colleagues.
3. The group marched dissidently through the streets, demanding change and justice.
4. Their dissidently written manifesto called for a reevaluation of the government's policies.
5. She approached the discussion dissidently, unafraid to confront the prevailing narrative.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissidently>