

DISSILIENT

Meaning: DISSILIENT: producing a sudden or explosive sound or effect, often characterized by a burst or release.

1. The dissilient sound of the fireworks echoed through the night, marking the celebration.
2. In her research, she noted the dissilient effects of the chemical reaction on the surrounding environment.
3. The artist captured the dissilient movement of water as it splashed against the rocks.
4. His dissilient laughter filled the room, making everyone feel at ease instantly.
5. The dissilient nature of the discussion allowed for a free exchange of ideas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissilient>