

DISSIMULATION

Meaning: Dissimulation is the act of concealing one's true thoughts, feelings, or intentions by pretending or using deceptive behavior.

1. Her dissimulation during the interview made it difficult to gauge her true intentions.
2. He was known for his dissimulation, often masking his feelings behind a facade of indifference.
3. Despite his charm, many suspected that his dissimulation hid ulterior motives.
4. In literature, dissimulation often serves as a tool for characters to manipulate others.
5. The politician's dissimulation was evident as he dodged questions about his controversial policies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissimulation>