

DISSIMULATOR

Meaning: DISSIMULATOR: a person who conceals their true motives or feelings behind a deceptive appearance or facade.

1. The politician was a master dissimulator, skillfully hiding his true intentions behind a facade of sincerity.
2. In a world filled with dissimulators, it can be challenging to find someone who speaks their mind openly.
3. Her charm and wit masked her nature as a dissimulator, making it hard for others to see her true self.
4. As a dissimulator, he could effortlessly blend into any social circle while concealing his real thoughts.
5. Trusting a dissimulator can lead to disappointment, as their motivations are often obscured by deception.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissimulator>