

DISSIPATION

Meaning: DISSIPATION: the act of wasting or squandering resources, such as energy or wealth, often leading to exhaustion or financial decline.

1. The dissipations of his energy left him feeling exhausted and unproductive.
2. Many believe that the dissipations of wealth in extravagant lifestyles can lead to financial ruin.
3. Her frequent late nights and lack of focus led to the dissipations of her once-promising career.
4. The dissipations of heat in the system were mitigated by improved insulation.
5. Environmentalists are concerned about the dissipations of natural resources due to overconsumption.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissipation>