

DISSOCIABLE

Meaning: DISSOCIABLE: capable of being separated or distinguished from another element or entity.

1. The concept of emotions often feels dissociable from rational thought in psychological discussions.
2. In the realm of chemistry, certain compounds are dissociable in water, leading to unique reactions.
3. Her ability to keep her work and personal life dissociable was key to her success in managing stress.
4. The philosopher argued that consciousness and perception are not easily dissociable phenomena.
5. In some cases, the symptoms of the illness were found to be dissociable from the underlying cause.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissociable>