

DISSONANT

Meaning: Dissonant refers to a combination of musical notes that clash or create a sense of tension and instability, often resulting in an unpleasant sound.

1. The dissonant chords in the piece created a sense of tension and unease.
2. While the melody was beautiful, the background harmonies were dissonant and jarring.
3. His dissonant views on the subject often led to heated debates with his colleagues.
4. The artist's use of dissonant colors challenged traditional notions of beauty in her work.
5. In the film, the dissonant soundtrack perfectly captured the protagonist's inner turmoil.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissonant>