DISSPIRIT

Meaning: To diss spirit means to deprive someone of enthusiasm or morale; to discourage or demoralize.

1. The constant rain seemed to diss spirit the team just before the big game.
2. Her harsh criticism was enough to diss spirit even the most confident of performers.
3. After several failed attempts, he began to diss spirit and question his abilities.
4. The lack of support from his peers did little but diss spirit his enthusiasm for the project.
5. Despite the setbacks, she refused to let anything diss spirit her determination to succeed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disspirit