

DISTASTEIVE

Meaning: Distasteive: eliciting or expressing strong dislike or aversion.

1. The proposal was met with distasteive reactions from the community, who felt it disregarded their needs.
2. Her distasteive comments about the art exhibit revealed her lack of appreciation for contemporary works.
3. The distasteive atmosphere in the room made it clear that no one was pleased with the outcome of the meeting.
4. He walked away from the distasteive meal, vowing never to return to that restaurant again.
5. Many found his distasteive tone during the discussion to be unprofessional and off-putting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distasteive>