

DISTEMPERATURE

Meaning: Distemperature refers to a state of bodily imbalance or disorder, often associated with illness or abnormal health conditions.

1. The horse showed signs of distemperature, prompting the vet to conduct a thorough examination.
2. In the old texts, distemperature was often associated with an imbalance of the body's humors.
3. During the lecture, the professor explained how environmental factors can lead to distemperature in both humans and animals.
4. The patient's symptoms suggested a distemperature that could be treated with appropriate herbal remedies.
5. As the weather changed abruptly, many people reported feeling a general sense of distemperature affecting their health.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distemperature>