

DISTENSIVE

Meaning: Distensive (adjective): relating to or causing expansion or stretching, particularly under pressure.

1. The distensive nature of the balloon became evident as it expanded with air.
2. In physics class, we discussed how distensive forces can affect the structure of materials.
3. The distensive effect of the heat caused the metal to warp and change shape.
4. Her distensive laughter filled the room, making everyone feel more at ease.
5. As the distensive pressure built up inside the container, we knew it was time to release the steam.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distensive>