

DISTENT

Meaning: Distant (adjective): far away in space or time; remote.

1. The distant mountains were shrouded in mist, creating a mystical landscape.
2. In the stillness of the night, the sound of a distant train echoed through the valley.
3. She often felt a distant longing for the carefree days of her youth.
4. The stars twinkled in the sky, each one a distant sun in its own right.
5. He gazed at the distant horizon, dreaming of adventures yet to come.
6. The distant mountains were shrouded in mist, creating a mystical atmosphere.
7. Her laughter echoed down the hall, a distant reminder of happier times.
8. He stared into the night sky, contemplating the distant stars that seemed so far away.
9. Amidst the chaos, she found solace in the distant sound of waves crashing on the shore.
10. The distant hum of traffic provided a constant backdrop to their quiet conversation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distent>