DISTHRONE

Meaning: To disthrone means to remove someone from a position of power or authority, particularly a ruler or leader.

1. The rebels sought to disthrone the oppressive regime that had ruled for decades.
2. In a dramatic turn of events, the ambitious prince plotted to disthrone his aging father.
3. Historical records detail numerous attempts to disthrone monarchs throughout the ages.
4. The political upheaval aimed to disthrone the corrupt leaders who had lost the people's trust.
5. Amidst the chaos, a new faction emerged, determined to disthrone the current ruling party.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disthrone