

DISTHRONIZE

Meaning: To dethrone means to remove someone from a position of power or authority, particularly a ruler or monarch.

1. The revolution aimed to dethrone the ruling monarch and establish a new government.
2. After years of oppression, the citizens united to dethrone the tyrant who had held power for too long.
3. Her speech inspired the crowd to dethrone the corrupt officials and reclaim their rights.
4. In a stunning turn of events, the military decided to dethrone the leader and restore democracy.
5. The coalition formed with the sole purpose to dethrone the existing regime and promote freedom.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dethrone>