

DISTINCT

Meaning: Distinct: clearly different or unique in characteristics or qualities.

1. The artist's style was distinct, setting her apart from her contemporaries.
2. Each region of the country has its own distinct culture and traditions.
3. The scientist noted the distinct differences between the two species during her research.
4. He has a distinct way of speaking that captivates his audience.
5. The flavors in this dish are distinct and memorable, lingering long after the meal.
6. The artist's style is distinct, setting her apart from her contemporaries.
7. There are distinct differences between the two species of birds.
8. Her distinct laugh could be heard across the crowded room.
9. Each flavor in the dish was distinct, creating a delightful culinary experience.
10. The two paintings had distinct moods, one vibrant and joyous, the other dark and somber.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distinct>