

DISTINGUISH

Meaning: To distinguish means to recognize or identify differences between two or more things.

1. It can be difficult to distinguish between the two similar colors in low light.
2. Teachers often help students distinguish right from wrong through discussions and examples.
3. The detective was able to distinguish the truth from the lies based on the evidence presented.
4. In order to succeed, you must learn to distinguish your strengths from your weaknesses.
5. The artist's unique style allows viewers to easily distinguish her work from that of others.
6. It's often difficult to distinguish between genuine emotions and feigned reactions.
7. The artist's unique style helps to distinguish her work from that of her contemporaries.
8. Teachers often find it challenging to distinguish students' individual learning needs.
9. Scientists can distinguish the different species of plants by examining their leaf structures.
10. With practice, you will be able to distinguish the subtle flavors in gourmet dishes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distinguish>