

DISTINGUISHMENT

Meaning: Distinguishment refers to the act of recognizing or identifying differences or distinctions between two or more entities, often highlighting subtle yet important characteristics.

1. The distinguishment between the two theories was subtle yet significant.
2. In art, a true distinguishment arises from the details often overlooked by the casual observer.
3. Her keen sense of distinguishment allowed her to identify the nuances in each performance.
4. The distinguishment of quality in craftsmanship can greatly influence a buyer's decision.
5. They sought to highlight the distinguishment of their brand in a crowded marketplace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distinguishment>